Wanhuida Partners share legislative updates in Paris

Media Center > Events

On September 23, 2025, upon the kind invitation of French law firm Germain Maureau, Lei Yongjian and Du Binbin, Partners of Wanhuida Intellectual Property speak on "Revisions of Chinese Trademark Law & Anti-Unfair Competition Law" in Paris.

Speaking before an audience comprising of the members of the Anti-Counterfeiting Committee of the Association des Praticiens du Droit des Marques et des Modèles (Association of Trade Mark and Design Law Practitioners, APRAM), Yongjian and Binbin share the latest legislative developments in China's newly amended Anti-Unfair Competition Law and the draft amendment of the Trademark Law. Their presentation focuses on the legal ramifications associated with the legislative change and the new measures adopted by the China National Intellectual Property Administration (CNIPA) in examination of non-use trademark cancellation applications.
