On Friday October 24, 2025, the Unifab China Committee Annual Meeting, which is hosted by French association Union des Fabricants (Unifab), is held in Paris.

The event features a keynote speech delivered by Paul Ranjard, Partner, Wanhuida Intellectual Property. Themed "Intellectual Property in China", Mr. Ranjard offers the audience an informative and thought-provoking session covering the latest legislative updates, as well as the trends and developments in China's evolving intellectual property protection landscape, from a case law perspective.

The firm's Founding Partner and Management Committee Chair, Bai Gang, his fellow partner and Management Committee member Dr. Huang Hui, and Partner Zhu Zhigang discuss hot-button issues with and provide practical takeaways to the French corporate representatives in the ensuing Q&A session.

Held both online and offline, the annual meeting brings together attendees from over 20 businesses.

Founded in 1872, Union des Fabricants (Unifab) is a French recognized public-interest organization. It has more than two hundred members from various industry sectors. Unifab promotes international cooperation and protection of intellectual property by fighting against counterfeiting.
