Wanhuida and 6 partners ranked in Chambers Greater China Region Legal Guide 2026

ニュース > 荣誉と実績

On 15th January 2026, Chambers and Partners announces the launch of the Chambers Greater China Region 2026 guide. The guide brings together extensive, independent in-depth market analysis, and rankings of the leading law firms and professionals across all four jurisdictions of the Greater China Region, featuring five exclusive sections: China (International Firms), Hong Kong Bar, China (PRC Firms), Macau SAR and Taiwan Jurisdiction.

Through the rigorous and independent research process, Wanhuida Intellectual Property and its 6 partners have emerged as market leaders and elite practitioners in the intellectual property field.

Wanhuida is ranked in Band 2 in the categories of "Intellectual Property: Litigation (PRC Firms)" and "Intellectual Property: Non-litigation (PRC Firms)". The firm is accredited by various sources as a "trusted firm for complex matters in China", providing "expert legal advice, practical tips and global action plans", which "effectively tackles the issues" the clients were facing. Clients also highlight the firm's expertise in "enforcement and infringement matters" and "anti-counterfeiting work". Its practitioners are applauded for being "methodical and thorough in their draftsmanship" and "highly engaged and well informed due to background research on matters".

BAI Gang, the firm's Founding Partner and Management Committee Chair, Dr. HUANG Hui and Ms. REN Haiyan, Partners and Members of the Management Committee are listed "Eminent Practitioners" in the Non-litigation field. BAI Gang is lauded as "a statesman in trade mark law in China", who is "well known for his expertise in IP-related disputes" and "attracts frequent instructions from foreign companies". Dr. HUANG Hui is praised for being a "highly competent" practitioner, well recognised for "his expertise in contentious IP work" and "impressive academic experience, particularly in relation to trade mark issues". REN Haiyan is commended for her "three decades of experience in trade marks" and her tactics in "dealing with infringement cases for high-profile clients".
