From 8th May to 10th May 2026, the 28th China Beijing International High-tech Expo (CHITEC), which is hosted by the Beijing Municipal Government, is convened at China National Convention Center.

Themed “Hi-tech spearheading future innovation”, the Expo brings together leading technological corporations to showcase the cutting-edge innovation in artificial intelligence, low-altitude economy, aeronautics and aerospace, among others.

The Beijing Municipal Intellectual Property Office, as one of the Expo organisers, runs a pavilion featuring the major players of the local intellectual property legal market. Wanhuida Intellectual Property is invited to exhibit at the pavilion.

In the afternoon of May 9th, Lu Tangchao, the firm's Senior Trademark Counsel shares insights on “Risk, Compliance and Cross-border Rules Associated with Trademark Use” in a pro bono session.

Partner Shi Liyan, Senior Trademark Counsel Li Yifei and Patent Counsel Ren Linchong attend the Expo.
